Proposed Amendments to the Pennsylvania Rules of Professional
Conduct Regarding Information About Legal Services

Notice of Proposed Rulemaking

Notice is hereby given that the Disciplinary Board of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania ("Board") plans to recommend to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania that it adopt amendments to the Pennsylvania Rules of Professional Conduct ("RPC") relating to information about legal services, as set forth in Annexes A and B. To enhance readability, a "clean" version of the proposal is set forth in Annex C.

In August 2018, the American Bar Association ("ABA") adopted significant revisions to its Model Rules relating to how lawyers communicate with prospective clients and the public at large regarding their services. These revisions were designed to update and streamline the advertising rules, recognizing that the manner and modes of lawyer communications with others have changed in a pronounced way over time. Pennsylvania historically has supported adoption of the ABA Model Rules, except where policy considerations justify a deviation from the Model Rule language.

Recognizing that Pennsylvania's RPCs have been in place for decades without substantial change, and further recognizing that consistency in application and in interpretation of the rules regulating lawyer conduct is important in the realm of lawyer communication in the digital age, the Board is considering amending RPC 7.1, 7.2, 7.3, 7.4, 7.5 and 7.7 to substantially conform to the ABA Model Rules. In effect, the proposal consolidates current RPCs 7.1 through 7.5 and 7.7 into proposed RPCs 7.1, 7.2 and 7.3.

Proposed revisions to RPCs 7.1 and 7.5

Proposed revisions to the RPC preserve the blackletter rule of RPC 7.1, which prohibits a lawyer from making a "false or misleading communication about the lawyer or the lawyer's services." Current RPC 7.5, which is titled "Firm Names and Letterheads," is essentially comprised of examples of potentially false or misleading communications about lawyers or lawyers' services, which are currently prohibited by RPC 7.1. The proposed revisions incorporate RPC 7.5 into Comments [5] through [8] to RPC 7.1, eliminating redundancy.

Proposed revisions to RPCs 7.2, 7.4, and 7.7

Current RPC 7.2 governs advertising. Numerous revisions are proposed as follows:

- The title is changed from "Advertising" to "Communications Concerning a Lawyer's Services: Specific Rules."
- Current RPC 7.2(a) is amended to conform to ABA Model Rule 7.2(a).
- Current RPC 7.2(b), requiring a lawyer to retain a copy or recording of an advertisement or written communication for two years after its last dissemination, is deleted.
- Current RPC 7.2(c), renumbered as 7.2(b), is amended to conform to ABA Model Rule 7.2(b). Comment [6] incorporates the blackletter of current RPC 7.7 relating to a lawyer referral service.
- New RPC 7.2(c) incorporates the blackletter provisions of current RPC 7.4(a)(1) - (3) pertaining to communication of fields of practice, and adds the following:

New paragraph (c)(2) permits a lawyer to state that the lawyer is a specialist in a particular field if the lawyer "is currently certified as a specialist in a particular field of law under the regulations of the highest court of a state in which that lawyer is licensed to practice...so long as the lawyer clearly designates the jurisdiction from which the certification was issued and, unless the lawyer is also certified [by an organization approved by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania as a certifying organization], the communication also states that the lawyer is not certified in Pennsylvania."

New paragraph (c)(3) permits a lawyer to state that the lawyer is a specialist in a particular field if the lawyer, even if not certified as a specialist, "can objectively verify the claim based upon the lawyer's experience, specialized training or education, and the claim is not otherwise false or misleading in violation of Rue 7.1."

- New RPC 7.2(d) incorporates the blackletter provisions of current RPC 7.4(b)(1) and (2), relating to approval by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania of a certifying organization.
- Current RPC 7.2(d), prohibiting endorsement by celebrities or public figures, is deleted.
- Current RPC 7.2(e), requiring that an advertisement or public communication containing a paid endorsement disclose that the endorser is being paid or compensated for his or her appearance or endorsement, is retained.
- Current RPC 7.2(f), prohibiting portrayals of a lawyer by a nonlawyer is deleted, but the prohibition against using a fictitious name to refer to lawyers not associated in a firm is retained.
- Current RPC 7.2(g), prohibiting a portrayal of a client by a non-client, or a dramatization without a disclosure, is deleted.
- Current RPC 7.2(h), renumbered as 7.2(g), is retained.
- Current RPC 7.2(i), renumbered as 7.2(h), is retained.
- Current 7.2(j), renumbered as 7.2(i), is retained.
- Current RPC 7.2(k), renumbered as 7.2(j), is amended by deleting the requirement that a lawyer handle all aspects of particular types of cases "from intake through trial" in order to advertise that the lawyer or lawyer's firm will only accept or has a practice limited to particular types of cases. The amended rule permits such statements if the lawyer handles particular types of cases as a principal part of the lawyer's or law firm's practice
- New RPC 7.2(k) requires that any communication under this rule include the name and contact information of at least one lawyer responsible for its content.

Proposed revisions to RPC 7.3

The proposed revisions to RPC 7.3 would clarify and update the definition of "solicitation" in order to reflect modern modes of communication. It would also follow the lead of the corresponding Model Rule by expanding the parties who may properly be solicited through "live person-to-person contact," as defined in the rule, to include persons with whom a lawyer or law firm has a prior business relationship, as well as persons who "routinely use for business purposes the type of legal services offered by the lawyer."

Proposed amendments are as follows:

- Revisions to RPC 7.3(a) delete the current text and define "solicitation" or "solicit" as a "communication initiated by or on behalf of a law firm that is directed to a specific person the lawyer knows or reasonably should know, needs legal services in a particular matter and that offers to provide, or reasonably can be understood as offering to provide, legal services for that matter."
- New RPC 7.3(b) incorporates the second sentence of current RPC 7.3(a) with modifications. It permits a lawyer to solicit professional employment by live person-to-person contact when a significant motive is the lawyer's or the law firm's pecuniary gain, if the lawyer's contact is with a person who has a prior business relationship with the lawyer or the law firm, or a person who routinely uses the type of legal services involved for business purposes. New Comment [2] clarifies that person-to-person contact does not include chat rooms, text messages or other written communications that recipients may easily disregard.
- New RPC 7.3(c) permits solicitation by targeted, direct mail which is authorized by the last sentence of current RPC 7.3(a).
- New RPC 7.3(d) incorporates current RPC 7.3(a).
- RPC 7.3(e) permits communication authorized by law or a court order such as notice to potential members of a class in class action litigation.
- RPC 7.3(f) permits a lawyer to participate with a prepaid or group legal service plan that uses live person-to-person contact to enroll members or sell subscriptions for the plan.
- The proposal retains Pennsylvania's exception to direct solicitation of clients through written communication under current RPC 7.3(b)(4). This provision is not present in the ABA Model Rules.

Other proposed revisions

The Board proposes changes to Comments [4] and [21] of RPC 5.5 to conform to the proposed amendments to the advertising rules.

Interested persons are invited to submit written comments by mail, email or facsimile regarding the proposed amendments to the Executive Office, The Disciplinary Board of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, 601 Commonwealth Avenue, Suite 5600, PO Box 62625, Harrisburg, PA 17106-2625, Facsimile number (717-231-3381), Email address Dboard.comments@pacourts.us on or before May 21, 2021.
